Bill Staines

Bill Staines is one of folk music's most durable and beloved singers. With 26 recordings and more than 300 original songs, Staines' music has been recorded by Peter, Paul, and Mary, Makem and Clancy, Nanci Griffith, Glen Yarborough, and many others. His music is sung at campfires and folk music gatherings, in homes and churches, all around the country.

Amy Kucharik & Friends with Benefits

Ukulele-slinging singer/songwriter Amy Kucharik energizes audiences with a winning blend of blues, folk, vaudeville and New Orleans jazz traditions along with her own sometimes quirky originals. Amy honed her street-smart stagecraft as a busker in Boston's subways, and her music has drawn comparisons to Maria Muldaur, Lake Street Dive, Christine Lavin, and Anais Mitchell.

The Meadows Brothers

Ian and Dustin Meadows are the Meadows Brothers. They share that essential brother-band DNA: a telepathic tightness, the ability to stop and start vocal phrases in lock-step, to fall effortlessly into close harmonies, trade off phrases and navigate together the fresh expression of American roots music they create.

David Roth

David Roth strikes many chords, hearts, and minds with his unique songs, offbeat observations, moving stories, sense of the hilarious, and powerful singing and subject matter. David has earned top honors at premier songwriter competitions and taken his music to a wide variety of venues in this and other countries full-time for three decades.

Nov. 17, 2018 at 3 p.m.

Zoe Mulford

Zoe Mulford charms audiences with powerful, story-driven songwriting, an engaging stage presence, and an unlabored vocal style. She backs her voice with guitar or clawhammer banjo, drawing on the traditional music of Appalachia and the British Isles and stealing a few pages from the American Songbook to create music that feels both comfortably lived-in and sparkingly fresh.
